Guilty Pleasure

by sourweather

Summary

Hannibal isn't used to being outclassed.

Now that he's with Will, though, he might not have much of a choice in the matter.

Notes

will graham is so hot he's got me in a chokehold okay I can't stop thinking about him fixing boats and doing woodwork and fuxking.... idk building shit he's so competent and rugged and hot and—this is another one thats kind of uhhhhh a proof of concept that I might expand on someday but for now just. thoughts of hot willl

Hannibal isn’t someone who is accustomed to being outclassed.

He takes his skills very seriously, doesn't rest until he's become exceedingly capable in his field of choice.

It's a bit of a shock, then, when he finds that Will is much, much better than him in bed.

Hannibal himself is by no means inexperienced in the art of sex. He's had many partners in the past, none of whom saw fit to complain.

But those were all encounters Hannibal had experienced through the barrier of his person suit.

No real emotional connection, no loss of self-control, no blips of insecurity.

With Will, though.

He's lost, whenever he and Will make love. Needy, and clumsy, and sensitive.

In a word, he feels awkward for the first time. Flustered. Overwhelmed.

It's a good sort of overwhelm, though. Between the sight of Will laid out like a feast in their bed, and the heady scent of him thick in the air, and the sounds Will makes—

He's drowning in pleasure before Will can so much as reach for his belt.

To make matters worse— better? It's difficult to say— Will is very good at what he does. Hannibal isn't sure why he'd expected Will to be the one in need of reassurance, why he'd always pictured Will as some shy, virginal thing with blushing cheeks and fluttering lashes.

To put it briefly, Will is... Unfairly competent. It's his Empathy, surely. It lets him see straight through to Hannibal's core, shows him every weakness. And he sets to it like he's solving a crime, too. All hard, focused eyes and sure movements.

He can wring orgasms from Hannibal effortlessly, or leave them floating just beyond his reach, or build them patiently for hours on end.

It should be embarrassing, really. With anyone else, Hannibal would be ashamed of how easy he makes it for Will to use him like a toy.

But when Will groans low, hisses through his teeth at the sight of Hannibal so undone, purrs "That feel good, darlin'?" in his ear...

Well, Hannibal has never believed in the idea of 'guilty pleasures'. He's certainly not starting now.
